

THE BURNETT HONORS COLLEGE
THE KATHRYN BUSCH FOREIGN AFFAIRS INTERNSHIP AWARD APPLICATION

The Kathryn Busch Foreign Affairs Internship Award was established by Stephanie Parenti Giordano, a Burnett Honors College alumna who graduated in 2011, in honor of her grandmother. This award was designed by Ms. Parenti Giordano to make a positive difference in the global community by supporting students who participate in unpaid internships in the foreign affairs field abroad. The Kathryn Busch Foreign Affairs Internship Award will be made annually in the Spring for Summer internships and in the Fall for Spring internships. Awards are $1,500 to support travel and other internship related expenses, and are available to Burnett Honors College students who will participate in internships with the Department of State, the United Nations, NATO, and other important institutions that help build international relationships.

Each application must contain these materials in one PDF file in the following order, or the application will not be considered:

1. This application page
2. A personal statement of no more than 500 words on future educational and career plans and how the proposed internship will be of help in achieving those goals
3. A resume or CV

In selecting the scholarship recipient, the committee will consider the following elements:

1. The recipient must be a full-time student and participating in unpaid foreign affairs internships
2. The recipient must be in good standing with the Burnett Honors College when the scholarship is awarded
3. Preference will be given to those students interning with the U.S. State Department, United Nations, NATO or other non-governmental organizations (NGOs)

Applicants should be advised that this award may affect their financial assistance status.
